PLACED IVY ON HIS GRAVE.

The Sigma Chi Fraternity Honor the Memory of Washington.

A large number of the members of the Sigma Chi fraternity, under the charge of Epsilon Alumnae Chapter, visited Mount Vernon yesterday on the steamer Charles Mac-lester. While at the tomb of Washington the ivy plant was presented by Mr. Frank Clegg, president of Epsilon Alumnae Chapter, and presents were given by Superintendents. Dodge placed it at the tomb. The ceremony was performed by Miss Helen A. Calloun, daughter of Rear Admiral Calloun of this city, and the appliances of the fraternity men. After visiting the mansion a luncheon was served on the boat, and the party returned to the city.

Immediately after their arrival a business meeting was held in Willard Hall. Committees were appointed to consider the question of adopting a fraternity flower and flag, and a resolution was adopted thanking the Epsilon Alumnae Chapter for the many hospitalities extended to the visiting members.

In evening the convention was closed by a concert, given by a quartet of five men set down. The hall was beautifully decorated, and many toasts were drunk to the success and prosperity of the fraternity. The convention was formally adjourned by President Fen-dall, and to day the members are leaving for home.

Try Lecture.

An interesting Lecture.
The "Dynamo machine in theory and practice," was the subject of the Rev. Dr. Woodman's lecture at the Catholic University yesterday afternoon.
He explained the mechanism and principles of this wonderful invention, and described the successive improvements which it has undergone since Platt's first experiment in 1832 down to the famous Brush and Edison dynamos of to-day. Dr. Woodman left for New York this morning, but will return later in the winter to deliver a course of scientific lectures at the University.

Meeting of a Republican Club.
At a meeting of the Maryland Republican Association, held at 609 F street last night, several applications for membership were received and laid over until the next meeting. A report of the financial condition of the association was read by the Secretary.
The annual election of officers was announced to take place at the next meeting. After reading several communications, the association adjourned until Friday, December 12.

A Boating Party.

We have often had applied to the meeting of the club. The only Dr. Pierre's Family Practice, to a party of thousands of women afflicted with "female complaints," has been our lot, for it has established the fact that this remedy is not only a safe and reliable one, but also a great convenience to the sick.
The only qualification to be met is that the manufacturer has no objection to sell it to the public, in every case, it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. We have sold it to many patients on the boat, and faithfully cured for many years.

Released from Jail.

On September 9 Judge Miller sent Roderick Jones, a young colored lad, to jail for larceny. It was not his desire to give Jones a life sentence, but was compelled to do so, as there was no room for him in the Reform School. As no vacancy then that time, he was curled at the school. Judge Miller had the boy brought before him to day and took his personal bond.

Cold Weather and Vagaries.
These frosty mornings bring the unfortunate into the Police Court. Today Judge Miller has before him Victoria Hawks, John Thornton, Thomas Center, Elizabeth Williams and Thomas Mitchell, all charged with vagrancy. The four last named were sent to the workhouse for sixty days each, but Mitchell was allowed to go on his own bonds.

Homoeopathic Physician's Annual.

A number of city physicians had nigh formed a Washington auxiliary to the Alumnae Association of the Hahnemann Medical College of Philadelphia.
Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. T. S. Veil; vice-president, Dr. C. B. Gilbert; secretary, Dr. W. H.
King; treasurer, Dr. L. W. Swanson.
The annual meeting will be held in March of each year.

INTERESTING FEATURES.

The Order is in a flourishing condition, Local and National.

High Secretary John R. Mahoney of the Independent Order of Rechabites has just returned from a visit to the Grand Tent session of Ohio Grand Tent at Berea. All the tents in Ohio that have left the order on account of the expulsion of certain members have agreed to return except two, and it is more than likely that one of these will soon return before spring. Mr. Mahoney says he attended a session and named Mahoney as the man in command of the order as he was advanced in age and knowledge of their own municipal affairs.

This resolution, with another in regard to street improvements in the District, "which for many years have been made exclusively at public expense, opposition to a special tax on advertising property for forthcoming improvements, unless a similar tax be charged back on all property benefited by the same, is to be voted upon Saturday evening."

"Never in all my twenty years connection with the order has it advanced so rapidly as it has during the past three months. Two tents have been organized in New York, five in Ohio, one in Michigan, one in the West, and one in Virginia. Stephenson has been taken to organize in Colorado, Kentucky, West Virginia, Indiana and Vermont.
Yes, sir, we are sure to institute twenty tents during December and you evidently know that the Rechabites are as firmly established now as they were when we arrived in New York, down Pennsylvania and into the South."

The semi-centennial of our existence in the United States will be celebrated in Washington August 12, 1892, and notwithstanding the High Tent session is held in Savannah, Ga., next August, Washington Rechabites are already making ready for '92, and mark my word for it, we will parade Pennsylvania Avenue on that occasion with 5,000 men."

Grand Chief Ruler J. C. Lee, who has resigned in Washington, was quizzed as to the tents here individually, and said:
"We have four large tents in Anacostia, two on Capitol Hill, one on Four and a half street and Pennsylvania avenue, one on Eighth street, one on Fourteenth street, and one in Georgetown, which are flourishing.
They are chartered nearly full of names for a tent in Northeast Washington, another primary tent and a junior tent of nearly 300 boys will soon be organized in Georgetown, and a junior tent of 150 boys is to be instituted on Eighth street next week. Charter lists for three ladies' tents have been distributed, so you see that we are booming on our part."

At 8 o'clock to-morrow afternoon the W. C. T. U. of the District will hold a small meeting at the Congregational Church Tent, G. Street, northeast.
Mrs. Jessie Starr Keeler of Toronto will speak upon the topic "A Nation's Peril and the Remedy." Reports will be made of the National W. C. T. U.
Convention recently held at Atlanta, Ga. The music will be a special feature. Friday evening Anacostia Tent, No. 128, had visitors present from every tent in the District, it being the second of the Grand Tent visitation.

One hundred and sixty-eight members were present. Grand Chief J. C. Lee made a rousing address, which was followed by many others.

The Uniformed Rank has organized, Grand Chief Lee has been elected commander.
They drill once a week.

Columbia Tent, No. 128, had two initiations on Monday evening. The members will be presented to the various delegations on Monday evening.

Charmed Tent, No. 16, held thank-giving services in their tent room Thursday evening.

Charmed Tent (ladies), No. 3, had two initiations on Wednesday evening.

Capitol Tent, No. 19, and Camack Tent (juniors), No. 21, had initiations on Wednesday evening.

Union Tent, No. 87, initiated three candidates on Wednesday evening.

Going Back to Its Old Quarters.

When Ballot! He adjourned court at Lieutenant Kelley's precept that morning to be notified the witnesses and others that on Monday morning court would convene in the old court building at the corner of 18th and P streets.

The workmen have not completed the work there, but Judge Miller says that he is notified of the progress of the work there, and Ayer's Pills are also in use for the use of travelers, soldiers, sailors, campers and pioneers. In some of the most critical cases, when all other remedies have failed,

After the doctors ordered a medicine that I was sending would be of no benefit to me. I did not take it, but persuaded myself to get some of Dr.
Ayer's Pills. They have worked in my feet again, and the pills have not yet begun to feel better. In the morning the doctors came again, and after discussing my symptoms were more favorable, gave me a different medicine. When I did not use the new one, the pain increased, so the next day the doctors came to see me, and said that I was doing nicely, and so did I. I then took one pill a day for a week. At the end of that time, I considered my self well enough to return to the disease, and gained as could be expected. —F. C. Ture, Late Justice

Ayer's Pills.

In the summer of last I was sent to the Anacostia hospital, suffering with chronic diarrhea. While there, I became so reduced in strength that I could not speak and was compelled to write everything I wanted and say it in a whisper. The doctors had no cure for me, so I had to go to the doctor's office for help. The doctor ordered a medicine that I was sending would be of no benefit to me. I did not take it, but persuaded myself to get some of Dr.
Ayer's Pills. They have worked in my
feet again, and the pills have not yet
begun to feel better. In the morning also, a serum for relieving any disagreeable sensations, and easing any eating.

Mrs. M. Ferguson, Pillar, Va.
"I was a sufferer for years from dyspepsia and liver trouble, and found no remedy until I commenced taking Ayer's Pills. They have relieved me from all trouble, and that quickly."
